Nedeljkovic's standout performance in the USHL caught the attention of the Carolina Hurricanes, who drafted him with the 37th overall pick in the 2014 NHL Entry Draft. He spent the next three seasons with the Charlotte Checkers, Carolina's American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate, where he continued to develop his skills and refine his playing style.

NHL Breakthrough

Nedeljkovic made his NHL debut with the Carolina Hurricanes in the 2019-20 season. Despite being a backup to Petr Mrazek, Nedeljkovic impressed with his performances, posting a 3.14 GAA and a .902 SV% in 23 games. In the 2020-21 season, he solidified his status as a legitimate starting goaltender, playing a significant role in the Hurricanes' run to the playoffs.

In July 2021, Nedeljkovic signed a two-year, $6 million contract with the Detroit Red Wings, seeking a greater opportunity to prove his worth as a starting goaltender. He immediately established himself as the Red Wings' number one netminder, showcasing his abilities throughout the 2021-22 season. Nedeljkovic finished the season with a 2.89 GAA and a .911 SV%, helping the Red Wings improve their defensive record significantly.

Playing Style

Aleksandar Nedeljkovic is known for his aggressive and athletic playing style. He relies on his quick reflexes, flexibility, and anticipation to make saves. Nedeljkovic is also known for his puck-handling skills, often making quick and effective passes to start counter-attacks.

One of the standout aspects of Nedeljkovic's game is his lateral movement. He displays exceptional agility and edge work, enabling him to close down angles quickly and effectively. Nedeljkovic is also adept at reading the play and anticipating where the puck is going, allowing him to position himself optimally for saves.

International Career

Nedeljkovic has represented Serbia on the international stage, participating in the IIHF World Championship Division I and the Olympic Qualification tournament. In 2022, he was a key member of the Serbian national team that won the bronze medal at the World Championship Division IA, contributing to their promotion to the top division for the first time in history.

Future Prospects

Aleksandar Nedeljkovic is widely regarded as one of the brightest young goaltending prospects in the NHL. His combination of athleticism, skill, and competitive spirit gives him the potential to be an elite netminder at the highest level. With ample opportunities to continue his development in Detroit, Nedeljkovic is poised to make a significant impact on the team and the league in the years to come.

Aleksandar Nedeljkovic's rise to prominence in the NHL has been a testament to his hard work, dedication, and undeniable talent. As he continues to refine his skills and gain experience, Nedeljkovic has the potential to become one of the most dominant goaltenders in the league. His story serves as an inspiration for young athletes everywhere, demonstrating that with passion, perseverance, and a belief in oneself, anything is possible.
