By the time Dia was 14, she had started drinking and using drugs herself. She quickly spiraled out of control, and by the time she was 18, she was homeless and addicted to heroin.

Dia's life on the streets was a living hell. She was constantly hungry, cold, and scared. She was also at the mercy of predators, both human and animal.

One day, Dia was attacked by a group of men. She was beaten and left for dead. But somehow, she managed to crawl away and find help.

That night, Dia had a revelation. She realized that she couldn't continue living the way she was. She needed to get clean and rebuild her life.

Dia checked herself into rehab and began the long and difficult process of recovery. It wasn't easy, but Dia was determined to succeed. She worked hard in therapy, and she slowly began to rebuild her life.

After completing rehab, Dia got a job and an apartment. She also started volunteering her time to help others who were struggling with addiction.

In 2017, Dia founded The Coldest Karma Ever, a non-profit organization that provides support and resources to people in recovery. The organization's mission is to help people break the cycle of addiction and poverty.
