

The Groom Will Keep His Name: A Modern Trend in Marriage

Why Are More Grooms Keeping Their Names?

There are a number of reasons why grooms are increasingly choosing to keep their own names. Some of the most common include:

Personal identity: For many people, their name is an important part of their identity.

What Does It Mean for Couples?

The decision of whether or not to keep one's name after marriage is a personal one, and there is no right or wrong answer. However, it is important for couples to discuss this issue openly and honestly before they get married, so that they can make a decision that they are both comfortable with.

If one partner is strongly opposed to taking the other partner's name, it may be possible to compromise by hyphenating the two names or choosing a new name entirely. Ultimately, the decision should be based on what is best for the couple.
