Hailing from the forge world of Elysium, the Empire Corps 12 is an elite formation of the Tempestus Scions, the finest soldiers the Adeptus Astartes have to offer. Clad in gleaming carapace armor and armed with the most advanced weaponry, they are the epitome of the Emperor's wrath.

Their reputation is one of unwavering courage and indomitable spirit. They have fought in countless battles, against countless foes, and have never known defeat. Their unyielding determination and unbreakable bond make them a formidable force on any battlefield.

But it is not their skill in battle that truly sets them apart. It is the bond that unites them. The Empire Corps 12 is more than just a regiment; it is a family. They have fought side by side, bled together, and shared countless hardships. Their bond of brotherhood is unbreakable, and it is this bond that makes them truly unstoppable.

One such example of their unwavering loyalty occurred during the Siege of Vraks. The Empire Corps 12 was tasked with holding a vital bridge against a relentless horde of Chaos cultists. Despite being outnumbered and outgunned, they refused to yield. They fought with tooth and nail, every man determined to protect his brothers.

As the battle reached its climax, the cultists broke through the Imperial lines. The Empire Corps 12 found themselves surrounded, their backs against the precipice of defeat. But they refused to surrender. They would stand and fight, together, until the bitter end.

And so, the Empire Corps 12 made their last stand. They fought with desperation, their bolters roaring and their bayonets glinting. They fell one by one, but they never gave up. In the end, they were all that remained of the regiment, but they had held the bridge. They had fulfilled their duty, and they had honored the Emperor.

The Empire Corps 12 is an inspiration to all who serve the Emperor. They are a shining example of courage, loyalty, and sacrifice. Their story is one that will be told for generations to come, and their legend will forever be etched in the annals of Imperial history.

They shall not pass.
