- The Smiths: A family on the decline, led by aging patriarch Big Daddy Smith. They struggle to hold on to their shrinking territory and influence.
- The Richards: A mysterious and secretive family, led by enigmatic leader Evan Richards. Their motives and connections remain shrouded in mystery, but their presence sows chaos among the other families.

The families control much of Harlem's illegal economy, from drug dealing to extortion, which contributes to the city's poverty and social problems. Their turf wars and retaliatory attacks result in bloodshed and disrupt the lives of innocent civilians.

However, the families also provide a sense of order and protection within their own territories. They offer support and services to their loyal followers and enforce their own code of justice, sometimes filling in the gaps left by law enforcement.
